Dear General Walters:

On behalf of our staff I wish to thank you for the generous amount of time you allocated to us in your brilliant presentation yesterday. Putting the problem our country faces into perspective, as you did, helps our management brief our national staff on how to respond to the questions of the business community which are received regularly.

Since I am the incoming president of The Union League Club of New York, it has occurred to me you may be willing to address the Club at one of their luncheons, and present your views. (Senator Buckley spoke to us last month.) While you would be speaking to an audience on the same wavelength as you, I believe they too need the "ammunition" you can provide to help in their advocacy of a strong intelligence organization.

I'll phone your office in the next few days, and do hope you will favorably consider this invitation. We usually are able to work out a date convenient to the speaker.

Again, my thanks for the opportunity to listen to a patriot.

Sincerely,

Joseph D. Ardleigh

DRAFT OF ANNOUNCEMENT TO MEMBERS
OF THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB

LIEUT. GEN. VERNON A. WALTERS

Deputy Director

Central Intelligence Agency

Gen. Walters has been in his present post since May, 1972. Previously he has served in almost every corner of the globe in the Army and Intelligence Service. He was born in New York City in 1917, attended St. Louis Gonzaga School, Paris, and Stonyhurst College, England. He speaks seven languages. He has accompanied President Nixon, Mrs. Nixon, and President Eisenhower, on many of their foreign, diplomatic and state visits, including official trips to France, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Spain and the Azores, as well as Mrs. Nixon's trip to the earthquake stricken areas of Peru in 1970. He has been the Army's Attache in Rio, Rome, and Defense Attache to France.

He is an eloquent, charming and informed speaker. He is in the unique position of being able to provide us with informed opinions on the validity of current critics of the CIA and its operations overseas. He will field questions after his talk. This promises to be a most lively and interesting "off the record" meeting.

General Walters joined the U.S. Army as a private in 1941 and advanced through grades to Lieutenant General in 1972 when he was appointed Deputy Director of CIA. Almost all of his career has been spent in intelligence and on foreign assignments. He has interpreted for four U.S. Presidents and speaks eight languages. He has served as deputy to four directors of the Central Intelligence Agency. He holds many U.S. and foreign decorations. General Walters will be happy to answer questions following his presentation.

Dear General Walters:

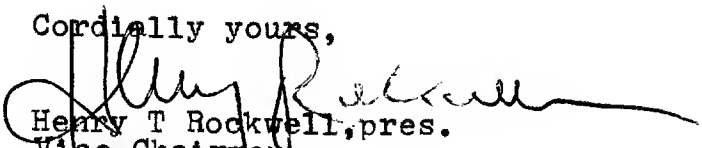

It is a pleasure to confirm your date to speak at the Union League Club Public Affairs luncheon March 18th. I understand biographical material will be coming to me so that we can issue a notice to members, similar to the attached announcement for Paul Volcker.

I urge you to be at the Club at 12 noon for a short reception prior to lunch at which Joe Ardleigh, other officers and distinguished guests may welcome you.

As far as we are concerned, your talk will be "off the record" and no press will be invited. If you desire it otherwise, let me know.

We have been privileged to have many distinguished speakers in the past and we are highly honored to have you accept. Mr. Ardleigh who is slated to be our new president will especially welcome you, as do I, a former Lt. Comdr in Censorship and Intelligence, now long retired.

Cordially yours,

There are more than 100 entrants in five tournaments now being played, and it is hoped that as many of the finals as possible will be played on April 21. Mr. Joseph A. Bower, who holds Membership Number 1 in the Annual List, writes from Palm Beach:

Dear Mr. McCormick:

I read your report to the members of the Club dated February 3, 1976. All the communications that I have received from the Club prompts happy memories of the past. If you look in the annual membership book, you will see that I have the distinct honor of having the oldest membership.

I recall with pleasure the thousands of times I was in the Club enjoying the companionship of other members, and personal attention from the well trained employees. The memories prompt me to think of the following poem:

When some times our feet grow weary
on the rugged hills of life,
The patch stretching long and dreary
with trials and labor rife
We pause on the upward journey,
Glance backward o'er valley and glen,
and sigh with an infinite longing
to return and begin again.

How I wish it could be.

Sincerely,
JOE BOWER

Mr. Bower has been a member since 1918 — we are proud to count him among our ranks.

The pair championship was won by Bill Dreher and Gene Smith, who had an unusually high score in the second pair match. The final pair match, on February 3, was won by Bill Berghold and Leffert Mendes.

Dear Mr. Budd:

Many thanks for your kind letter of March 18 enclosing your son Jonathan's research paper. It is a very interesting paper. There is a wealth of data on the activities of American espionage and intelligence during the Revolution and I am working to get it published as part of our Bicentennial project.

I do note in the paper on page 26 the comment "To funnel off Whiskey taxes to themselves. Shades of the C.I.A.!" I can't say that I agree with this. No one has produced a shred of evidence to indicate that anyone in C.I.A. was trying to make money for himself individually or for the Agency, and I repeat, despite all the innuendo, no evidence has been produced to justify the indictment of a single member of this organization. There is a lot of loose talk, but no evidence to corroborate criminal activity as so freely bandied about.

Thanks again for your thoughtfulness and if Jonathan is ever in Washington I would be glad to talk to him about U. S. intelligence.

Faithfully,

Dear General Walters:

Again, a fine talk today at the Union League. Enjoyed it immensely. I was much interested in some of the exploits you mentioned about George Washington's Secret Service; one or two there that my son missed in his research for the enclosed paper.

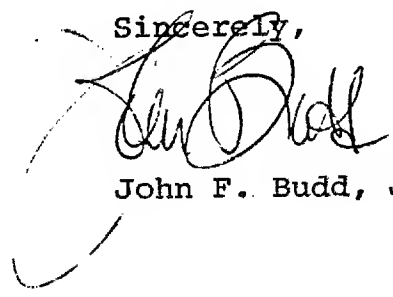

Taking you at your word, I have sent along a copy of it. This was a Bicentennial project. You'll be especially interested in the epilogue, starting on page 29.

If you should feel disposed to comment on it, I know Jonathan would be very pleased. Currently he's at home on a Spring break (our address is:

Dear Mr. McCormick:

Just a note to thank you for your very warm praise and for the amusing cartoon. I greatly enjoyed presenting a defense of intelligence to the distinguished Union League Club and I am most grateful to have been given such an opportunity.

You can be sure that we will continue in our efforts to provide the best intelligence to ensure our country's freedom.

With every good wish.

Dear General Walters:

Your remarks at the Union League Club yesterday were perfect for such a serious business. Notwithstanding the change made by the Brazil-to-Bangladesh Soviet ambassador, in our opinion you are a skilled diplomat.

I thought you would enjoy the enclosed cartoon by Wright of the Miami News which helps to keep alive that great old punch line -- "shoot the dog!"

Please continue to do what must be done to maintain our position in the world.

Sincerely,

Dear Charles,

Many thanks for your letter. I very much enjoyed giving the distinguished members of the Union League Club a view of the intelligence community which is different from what the press would have you believe.

I'm happy if I had anything to do with your becoming a Brazil Watcher. I can't help feeling that it is a country with a great future.

It was good to hear from you. With every good wish.

Faithfully,

Dear Dick:

Thank you for your excellent talk at the Union League Club here in New York last Thursday. I only wish that the Q and A period had been longer.

As I mentioned at the cocktail hour, I shall always remember your briefing on Brazil when you returned from your assignment there, when I was piloting the Sneaky-Pete desk in Special Ops in ODCSOPS. That was over a decade ago, but, as a result of it, I've been a Brazil Watcher ever since. You hooked me with your infectious enthusiasm.

Within the month I shall be writing to you again, at that time in reference to a society named the ENDS OF THE EARTH. In the meantime I enclose some preliminary info about the group.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Leo,

Thank you for your very kind words of praise regarding my talk at the Union League Club. I am most appreciative for having been given the opportunity to present the views of the people in intelligence to such a distinguished audience. I will send you a copy of the transcript of my talk as soon as it is available.

I am absolutely delighted with the bust of Abraham Lincoln. They could not have given me anything that I would have valued more. With many thanks and every good wish.

Dear Dick:

You were absolutely first-rate before the Union League Club. I was, in fact, so impressed with your comments that I asked your associate to make a copy of the tape for me once I saw that he was recording it. I must assure you that my absence when it was over was most reluctant and simply because I had an appointment in the U.S. courthouse in Foley Square at 2:30; otherwise I would have told you personally how delighted I was to be at the Club for that occasion.

With my deep regards.

Sincerely,
